Anything in particular you like to cook?: Anything out of Food and Wine Magazine is really good. Italian, Chinese, there's actually a website called allrecipes.com and they have a killer potatoes au gratin, which is awesome. It's really easy to make and you'd think it was a gourmet dish.

What's your favorite vacation spot?: Maui, out of all the places I've been, my wife and I went there on our honeymoon so we just have a lot of great memories from there, it was an awesome place. And not if that, Peoria, Illinois.

What's your favorite movie?: I love Ground Hog's Day, I love as far as action goes the Lord of the Rings series and William Wallace in Braveheart.

What is the first dollar you earned?: Babysitting, I was 11.

What is the most meaningful song that you have written or sang?: Mine would have to be "Hiding Place," it was actually one of the first few songs that I heard of Selahs. I just remember when I got to that point on the CD I just had to keep repeating it and repeating it and I didn't even know what came after it for the first few days because I just kept listening to it over and over. I think its because I grew up with such a big family, and it is so chaotic that you don't have a secret quiet place to go to when you share a bedroom with your sister. For me its just an amazing song and it gets inside my spirit and just reminds me that no matter what's going on in life He can make me strong when I feel weak.

What's the question you are most tired of answering?: I'm still new; I'm still excited about all the questions.

I've got space invaders, asteroids, I got a lot of the games from the 70's and 80's when I was a kid growing up and they're the actual stand ups like the ones you find in the arcades. I love to collect those.

I could honestly sit in there all day, read, and go have a cup of tea, come back, and hit all the sections. I mean I'll look at all the stuff. You left handed? We left handed people are in our right mind."

What is the most meaningful song that you have written or sang?: I guess mine changes with different seasons, but if I had to pick a favorite now, "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" off our Christmas album.
